► TUSD'S Financial Services Program

Financial Services provides a thorough understanding of financial information relating to business and personal financial management. Personal financial management includes establishing credit, budgeting, investing, and maintaining financial documents. Students develop a business financial plan with emphasis on management, advertising, promotion, personnel, market share, and capital investment. Many of the functions of financial institutions are analyzed as well as products and services provided, security measures, and the role of government regulatory agencies. Academic skills, such as reading, writing, mathematics, and research are vital to the successful completion of projects and activities. Job acquisition skills as they relate to careers in finance are emphasized.

Financial Services prepares students for college and the workforce.

Career Opportunities in Financial Services

As people's incomes continue to climb and they seek better returns on their investments, they will increasingly need the advice and services of financial service employees to realize their financial goals.
